

Tech for Social Good

Data for Good

Use your data skills to make a difference.

Join JPMorganChase at our two-day Data for Good Hackathon. With guidance and teamwork, you'll help a nonprofit tackle a meaningful challenge using real data. Come network with other aspiring technologists from around the country, while working alongside our tech experts to support a nonprofit with data-based solutions.

Why Attend?

- Learn from Experts: Participate in workshops led by industry professionals.
- Hands-On Experience: Work with real datasets to solve challenges faced by nonprofits.
- Collaborative Environment: Collaborate with peers who share your passion for learning and social impact.
- Support a Cause: Use your skills to help nonprofits achieve their missions.
